

Six String Notes

February 2021

We hope you are taking advantage of the many opportunities to enjoy streaming music performances. I know most of us miss the warmth, comfort, and community of experiencing live music together. We saw many comments from our Six String Concerts friends while watching the Carrie Newcomer livestream concert on January 30. With the lights down, it almost felt like a live show.

Kimberly Rice Wilson

This month, SSC will be experiencing another first: Folk Unlocked – A virtual Conference by the Folk Alliance International. Every February, FAI hosts a huge conference with artists, presenters, agents, managers, and folk music fans. Our board members attend, with the goal of discovering new artists to bring to our stage. We will be attending remotely this year, as we look ahead to the time when we can host live music again.

This continues to be a challenging year for all of us, but Six String Concerts is committed to our mission of serving our patrons and the acoustic singer-songwriter community.

We hope you will enjoy the virtual performances highlighted in our newsletter. Stay well!

--Kim Rice Wilson, President
